Kent was born and raised in Heber City. He is the oldest of seven boys. He was educated in the Wasatch County Schools and graduated from Wasatch High. His senior year he started going to Utah Tech. College in Provo where he took welding. This is where he met Patricia. They later were married in Oct. 1972, and moved to Evanston, Wyoming, where Kent had a job. After a while they moved back to Heber City where they started their family and later solemnized their marriage in the Salt Lake Temple in April 1980.

Kent has worked a variety of jobs. He has been a skidder in the timber, a masonry helper, worked in the mill of the Park City Mines, and was a spin roller operator for making pressurized tanks. He is presently a welder. He enjoys hunting, fishing, and camping. He is a member of a mountain men club which is called The Shadow of Timp Mountain Men.

Patricia was born and raised in Payson, Utah. She has two brothers and was number two in the line of three. Pat was educated in the Payson Schools and graduated from Payson High. She then went on to Utah Tech. College in Provo for two years and graduated with a Business Degree. She worked for Sears in Provo in the accounting department after graduating and before marrying Kent. She has also worked for the Wasatch Wave and Clarence Olson here in Heber. She likes to go camping and is also a member of the Shadow of Timp Mountain Men Club. She enjoys collecting Indian dolls from places she has been and is starting to collect oil lamps.

Dianna is the oldest of three children and was born in Heber City. She had a difficult start, but with strong determination made it. She likes to hunt and collect pretty rocks, and enjoys most everything she does.

Kirk LeRoy is the second in line and was born in Heber City. He enjoys doing things with his dad.

Christopher John is the youngest. He has a lot of determination which sometimes gets him in some pretty funny situations.
